

How Intimate Would You Like to Be with Love?

By Scottyji

How intimate would you like to be with love?

This is really

the only question worth asking

Would you like your soul to be caressed by love?

Would you like to be Known, admired, cherished?

Would you like to be lifted above all

doubt, shame, & fear

Replaced entirely by knowing how I see you?

Would you like to play & laugh & relax with me?

Would you like to look into my eyes

& exchange only love?

How intimate really would you like to be with love?

Entirely

but how can I possibly experience such love?

The answer might surprise you

You just did!
