

The Healing Force of Love

By Scottyji

Hello anger
you seem about to burst

I will sit with you until the pain subsides

Do you ever imagine your life with no anger at all?

Love has asked me to send this message for you to store in the inbox of your heart

I'm so sorry for your suffering but know this sweet friend

No anger within you can withstand the healing force of my love

And I will never stop loving

You!
